

Drink "Small": Artisanal Cellar Selections

- Small Producers with Huge Flavor -

White

133Viognier, "Cold Heaven", Santa Ynez Valley, 200947.00

A highly expressive and perfumed bouquet displays scents of apricot, peach nectar, orange marmalade and white flowers. Broad, palate-staining pit fruit flavors are braced by tangy minerality and become spicier with air. Offers an intriguing blend of depth and vivacity, with very good finishing clarity and stony persistence; this is a classic rendition of the Viognier.

Lively...Fresh...Complex is the mantra and goal for self-taught winemaker Morgan Clendenen. Cold Heaven Cellars has been producing dreamy, balanced Viognier wines from cool climate vineyards in the Santa Barbara County since 1996.

019Bandol Blanc, Le Galantin, Provence, 200943.00

Very rare Bandol Blanc comes from this tiny vineyard...enough said.

Red

287Pinot Noir, John & Carrie Holdredge, Russian River Valley, 200859.00

What is not to love about this wine? Crushed raspberry, star anise, incense and potpourri on the seductively perfumed nose. Silky, sweet and penetrating, with a strong spice character and lovely freshness to the flavors of red berries and floral pastilles. Firm acidity and silky tannins give this pinot the structure to evolve in bottle but it's extremely sexy right now.

They grow Pinot Noir and Syrah in a small vineyard where they emphasize a hands-on approach. Most of the fruit is purchased from other growers, all of whose vineyard sites offer something special in terms of soil, climate or some other feature which will impact the wine. All involved share a commitment to the earth where the wine is grown. As winegrowers and winemakers have done for thousands of years, much of the work is done by hand, favoring minimal use of machines or chemicals. The goal is to make wines that express the soil, climate and the year that nature provides.

401Syrah, Spring Valley Vineyard, Nina Lee, Walla Walla Valley, 2008 102.00

The nose is ripe and sweet with scents of dried wild grass, violet, and white chocolate. Flavors of dark cherry, black plum and chocolate mingle on the palate. This wine has a huge mouthfeel; the long finish is fruity, juicy, and covered with fatty tannins.

Mary and Devin Derby moved from Chicago back to Devin's childhood home to develop the Spring Valley Vineyard on a 650 acre farm that has been worked by the family since the 1880s. Quoting Devin, "We're a family of farmers who have learned to trust our intuitions," said Devin. "Everything we need is in the vineyard. We decided to pay attention, but not go by the textbooks when we made wine."

COLLECTIBLES

Rarities and legendary vintages will be offered from time to time. We hope this selection of wines, super-scarce and available in miniscule quantities, will please those searching for inimitably singular and compelling encounters of grape and time.

These wines are offered with strong knowledge of provenance and great confidence in the cellar conditions. Please keep in mind these are mature, aged wines - and will appear and drink as such. Unless a wine is corked, returns/refusals cannot be honored.
